The romance and fun-times associated with a seaside holiday are elegantly captured in this gorgeous Barwon Heads family home. It's a pure, honest-to-goodness, original beach house with a becoming extension designed to bring all your family and friends together and to share the best of times. There are plenty of bedrooms for everyone so send out the invites, pack your beachy things, buckle-up and come on down.

Sunny days, warm breezes and glorious beaches: they're what Barwon Heads is renowned for in the summer. But for year-round residents and regular all-season visitors there are plenty of other reasons to love Barwon Heads.

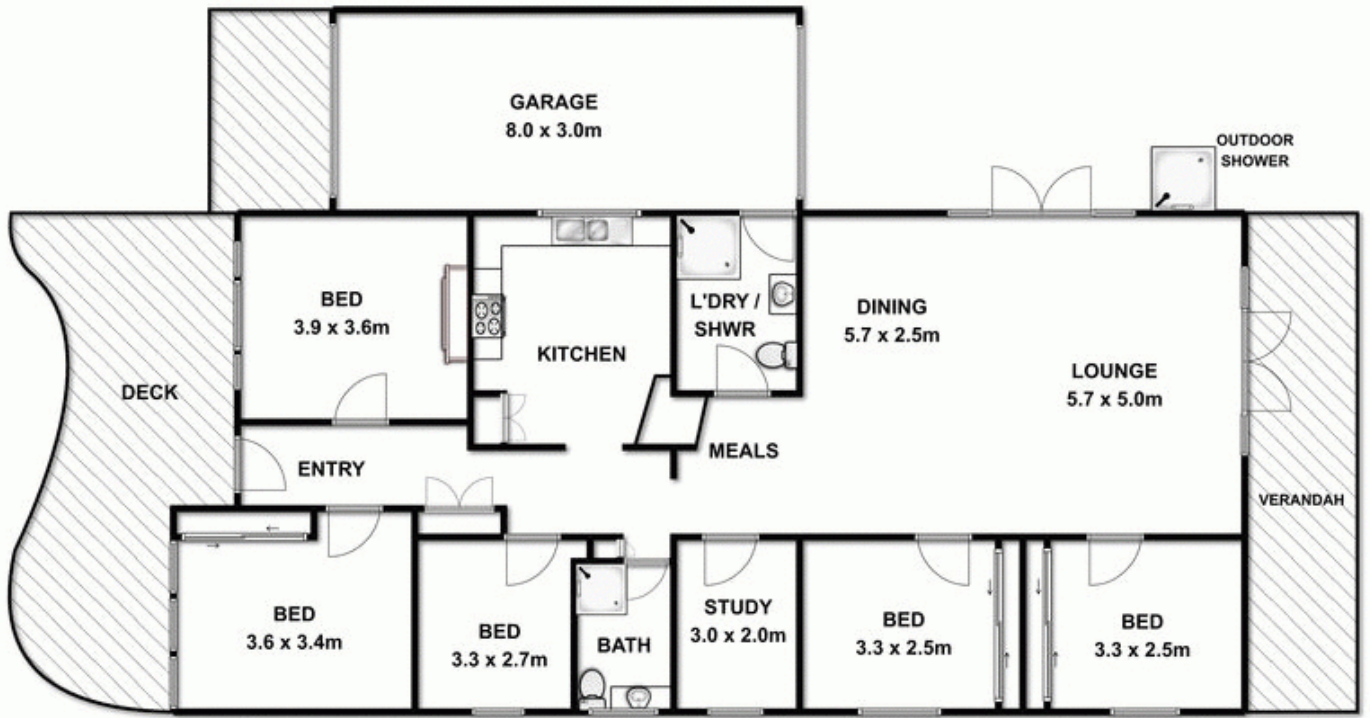

This property is charming, with its wide frontage, cottage-looks, off-white weatherboards, picket fence and timber verandah there is immediate street appeal.

In recent times the home's original floorplan has been extended. The structure of the original weatherboard home has been kept and a rear addition has substantially increased the living area and added two additional bedrooms (to the front three) and a second, central
