

2 Barwon Terrace BARWON HEADS VIC

Announcing a rare opportunity to secure a prime allotment in one of Barwon Heads' most sought-after locations. This expansive property is just a short stroll from the river and minutes from shops, the golf course and the beach. In a quiet street amongst established homes, this is the perfect canvas on which to paint your seaside dream.

The deep block on the northern side of the street would be ideal for any number of residential or development options (STCA). The choice is yours to create your own family paradise with ample room for gardens, pool or tennis court. With a market value that will only increase, this property would also make a very canny investment.

An allotment of this size in this wonderful location is very rarely obtainable - do not miss this fantastic opportunity to truly make your mark and secure your future.
