

5/66 Thacker Street OCEAN GROVE VIC

3 1 1

In the hilly coastal areas near St Tropez in the South of France there are small and exclusive estates with delightful villas set among native shrubs and trees. This home, while Australian in character, has some alluring similarities.

The Barwon Views Estate is located in an elevated position above the Ocean Grove township with views towards the bluff and Barwon Coast beaches. It is situated in 'old' Ocean Grove but away from the more built-up areas.

The homes in this quiet and exclusive cul-de-sac estate are built in similar styles to each other with a prominent use of natural timbers including native cypress. This facilitates the ease in which the homes blend into their natural environment, creating a Provincial holiday feel. However, with their large windows, clean lines and use of exterior colours such as 'Woodland Grey', 'Paperbark' and 'Shale', this home epitomises the modern Australian beach-scape style.

This home comprises of three bedrooms, all of which are carpeted and contain built in robes. Near them is a beautifully appointed bathroom with bathtub and separate
