If you're after a home with a profile for a home office situation we've found the perfect solution! This home offers space, and a large outdoor entertaining area. This meticulously maintained and updated home definitely deserves your consideration for permanent living or holidays.

The home's floor plan is ideal for families with the formal lounge, dining and master suite set at the front of the home away from the busy areas. The lounge is welcoming with timber floating floors and encircled by large windows overlooking the pretty garden beds and grassy area of the rear garden. Adjacent is a stylish, spacious kitchen with Caesar stone look bench-tops and modern appliances. The tiled informal living space is a lovely area for family to relax and play. It flows effortlessly between internal and external living with glass doors opening onto a roomy enclosed patio, perfect for year-round entertaining.

There are three generously sized bedrooms set away from the living areas, two with built in robes and the main with an attractive en-suite and walk-in robe. The main bathroom is a fresh delight in blue and white, the laundry has that much
