We dare you to find a better deal, a better location all for the same value. The owners are prepared to consider all respectable offers presented. Don't resist the opportunity, vendors say SELL. Buyers ready to buy should inspect today.

The secrets out! The Paris end of Taits Road extends east of Carr Street, a quiet little enclave most would not know existed.

The wide, leafy gravelled road has no through traffic; just a small collection of homes on large plots adjoining the river bank mangroves.

Barwon River boat ramp, jetties and boardwalks are just around the corner for regular fishing or walks along the calm, tranquil waters.

The extensive four bedroom home has been refurbished over time; meticulously maintained, right down to the fruit trees and garden beds.

Polished timber floors run throughout living, kitchen, dining and hallway, while a carpeted sunken lounge enjoys a northerly aspect linking to a large entertaining deck. Shaker style cabinets and dark benches in the kitchen create a Hamptons feel, with a fully rendered facade adding a
