

6 Baytown Close BARWON HEADS VIC

2 1 1

This beautiful home, situated at the end of a quiet tree-lined court, is truly a one-off in Barwon Heads. Featuring prominent blue-stone walls and cedar cladding surrounding the exterior and an eclectic mix of new and recycled materials inside, a surprise awaits at every turn!

Once inside, this home oozes charm and character: fifteen foot cathedral ceilings, supported by solid oregon timber beams, un-painted/treated Baltic pine doors and redwood cedar window frames throughout plus various antique fixtures add to its cozy personality.

An updated bathroom and toilet provides additional scope for further refurbishments.

External and separate to the house, lies a fully, self-contained cabin, with bathroom, perfect for an older child or guest/s.

Set on a large allotment of 705sqm, with an established garden in a tranquil setting, there is ample space for relaxation.

Or alternatively, realise an array of possibilities by renovation or extensions.

Tucked away at the back end of this court location, Baytown Close has a consistent feel with all houses constructed with an earthy theme. Access to the river,
