3 2 2

Delightfully hidden at a quiet court end, this charming home enjoys rare privacy. Harnessing the beauty of its north facing niche, the light-filled design boasts a grapevine-clad veranda that casts a golden glow throughout and provides an enchanted platform for outdoor living. This calming home, within a bike ride of the river, beach and shops, is ideal for holidays or permanent living.

- Two comfortable living zones boast north and south facing glazing for optimum natural light
- Vaulted ceilings, exposed rafters and bright white decor absorb the glow of the calming veranda
- Natural flow between the central kitchen, lounge and living provides a zoned yet open plan feel
- The lounge accesses the master bedroom and en suite
- Two further double-sized bedrooms with built-in robes bud off the living area
- This thoughtful design ensures privacy to parents and children, or hosts and house guests
- A wet area with bathroom, separate toilet and Euro laundry also links both living zones
- French doors create seamless flow between the undercover veranda, lounge and living areas
