

14A Thorn Street BARWON HEADS VIC

3 2 2

One of two fantastic homes reflecting a modern sleekness but with lots of personal touches adding character. Step into the wide expansive hallway with floor lights from one end to the other. A very impressive open plan lounge/living area, polished concrete features throughout, Meals area with floor to ceiling windows and double sliders to the deck area, Kitchen with large oven and cooktop - dishwasher and beautiful cabinets plus with north and east windows allowing natural light in. This one gigantic room has lots of natural light, a partial cathedral ceiling and reflecting through the windows is the massive tree from the rear neighbours yard creating a calming affect throughout. Downstairs, you will also find an elegant master bedroom with a sliding barn door of exquisite taste. Walk in robe runs the length of the room on one side and on the other you will find the full ensuite with a separate toilet and shower. Ceiling fan a bonus. Powder room, plus laundry with cupboards complete the lower level. When you stand at the top of the stairs, you can view the floor below all along the top hallway creating a feeling of openness with the added skylight for extra light. Bedrooms two and three both offer ceiling fans, both rooms are main size. The bathroom is spectacular with a large modern euro type
