- The bush trail and boardwalk approach set the mood before entry
- The home follows the lay of the land with a split-level design maximizing the charming surrounds
- The lovely northeast orientation has passive solar benefits
- The earthy influence of hardwood timber features compliments the setting so well
- A beautiful selection of gums nestle the dwelling and deliver leafy views to every room
- Vaulted ceilings add a palpable third dimension to the light-filled design
- Glazing in the open kitchen/living area extends to the gable framing the Otway-esque views
- These windows access a treetop balcony providing incredible alfresco experiences
