This incredibly innovative, architectural design offers a fresh take on the family home.

Enter directly into the open-plan kitchen and living zone. Spacious in its design thanks to airy raised ceilings, the living zone forms the home's central feature with its open floor plan and extended view lines through to both the front and back gardens.

A large entertainer's kitchen hides a walk-in pantry behind it, while a smartly-designed second living area adds to this architectural home.

Sleek Tasmanian Oak flooring to the living and kitchen zones give this design a truly modern edge, while decking to north facing gardens provide a number of opportunities for alfresco dining.

The master bedroom offers ample storage space via floor to ceiling built-in-robos and a luxury ensuite complete with a double vanity and spacious surrounds with the added bonus of natural light thanks to the sky lighting.

Putting family and comfort first, this stunning home is not to
