The Feel:

Purpose built as a heartfelt place to entertain indoors and out; this meticulously crafted builder's own home is the embodiment of relaxed seaside living. A private sanctuary of distinction and calm, this coastal retreat occupies a 688sqm (approx) corner allotment in an exclusive inner village location. Timeless design evokes a provincial coastal aesthetic, with 4.5m cathedral ceilings and skylights that enhance the sense of space and light. Relax on the huge front veranda overlooking the immaculate garden or enjoy the sheltered north courtyard for alfresco dining.

The Facts:

- Effortless luxury in breathtaking coastal home on river-end Carr St
- Distinctive façade & deep veranda with merbau timber deck
- Designed for entertaining, the home maintains a strong connection between inside & out
- Expansive interior living space under 4.5m cathedral ceiling is an open meditative space
- Large-scale glazing & Velux skylights flood the home with natural light
