The Feel:

Very occasionally a truly unique property becomes available within the tightly held Barwon Heads township. Located in one of Barwon Heads most beautiful streets, this classical Rob Pittaway, solid brick, rendered contemporary home is set on 2,653sqm (approx) of prized land. The northerly aspect over beautiful private gardens and rolling lawns are a feature of this property with a parkland reserve opposite. A tradies paradise with huge shed, 8 car accommodation, and still space for a tennis court and swimming pool.

The Facts:

- Ideal family home with five bedrooms and three bathrooms
- Quality solid brick contemporary home built to the highest standards.
- High gable and timber lined ceilings with textured rendered interior walls.
- Northerly living rooms open directly to large outdoor alfresco sundeck.
- Beautiful natural light, with large floor to ceiling windows.
